

Additional Information

Born in Eaton, I find it fitting that the dirt track I grew up riding on in the 80's is the location of the new shire council offices.

As a Christian and father of 8, I am focused on families, and the issues that local families face.

I ran as an independent in the 2025 state elections as I felt the need to speak out and give people a choice. I am focused on integrity and honesty. Though public speaking is not something I find comfortable, I am driven to push forward, and to stand for the position of councillor, so I can be a voice in council for all those who live in our beautiful shire. We have so much here to offer. From the river, to stunning bush walks.

We have a lot of amazing local business with hard working people. We are a diverse shire, with many cultures. Lets focus on our strengths, and move forward in a well thought out way that will support those who live and work in the shire of Dardanup.

The cost of living is pushing more families into financial hardship, and I intend to focus on minimizing spending that doesn't need to be spent, and the money that is spent is spent in a responsible and conservative way, while supporting the facilities and things our shire needs to be an amazing place to live.

I am someone that like to dig into the facts and, at the same time, someone who strives to look for the positive. There needs to be people who stand for others, and not self-interests. If elected, I will read and study all the facts, so I can make the best-informed decisions for all the rate payers of this shire, that will benefit all of us.

The covid-19 response by all level of governments was also damaging and I want to ensure that those decisions are not repeated. Many families and businesses were negatively impacted. Let's learn from the past, so we don't repeat the errors of the past.

I support local businesses and want them to thrive. Not just survive.

Thank you for your consideration.
