Ralph Keegan
Candidate for Councillor, Shire of Dardanup

About Me:

I have proudly lived in the Shire of Dardanup for many years and care deeply about our community and its future. I bring broad skills, strong values and the time to dedicate myself fully to the role of councillor.

My Background & Skills:

Served over 20 years in the Regular Army, gaining leadership, teamwork and problem-solving skills. Operated a safety consultancy and training company for many years, supporting businesses in improving workplace safety.

Now retired, I can commit the time and energy required to represent residents effectively.

Community Involvement:

Vocal advocate regarding issues with the growing Dardanup tip, highlighting the need for responsible waste management.

Former member of the Leschenault Biosecurity Group, working to protect our local environment and agriculture.

My Priorities if Elected:

1. Accountability - Open and transparent decision-making, with Council listening to residents.
2. Efficiency of Resources - Careful management of ratepayer funds to deliver essential services without waste.
3. Australia Day for Everyone - Supporting inclusive celebrations that bring our community together.

Why I'm Running:

The Shire of Dardanup is a wonderful place to live, work and raise a family. I want to ensure our growth is balanced, our environment is respected, and our community values are upheld. I will listen, act with integrity, and work hard for all residents.
