I grew up in the Shire of Dardanup, and I'm proud to be raising my own family in the community that shaped me. I will bring a fresh and vibrant perspective to council ensuring families and youth are represented. I'm passionate and committed to:

- * Ensuring we are planning for future generations by forwarding projects that are sustainable and promote growth in our community.
- * Seeing change and funds spent in our smaller communities.
- * Promoting community events to bring the wider community together.
- * Communicating the views of the whole community and ensuring they are heard.

I believe that council should work for everyone by creating opportunities and spaces where our community can connect, grow and succeed. This will build our future.

If you want a councillor who is approachable, energetic, and ready to drive positive change, then I would be honoured to earn your support in this year's election.
