MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT

PREAMBLE

Local Government (Model Code of Conduct) Regulations 2021 (Model Code of Conduct)

The Model Code of Conduct repealed and replaced the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007. In addition to redrafted rules of conduct, the Model Code of Conduct introduced overarching general principles and behavioural standards applying to council members, committee members and candidates. Recent reforms incorporated into the consolidated Regulations now also strengthen the behavioural complaints framework, including new mechanisms for oversight and escalation. Behavioural complaints continue to be managed at the local government level in accordance with the processes set out in Schedule 1 of the Regulations, which now includes additional provisions such as Regulation 3A (Inspector referral after repeated findings) and Schedule 1 clauses 14A and 14B supporting external oversight of complaint handling.

Legislative basis and adoption

Section 5.104 of the Local Government Act 1995 requires each local government to adopt a code of conduct for council members, committee members and candidates, consistent with the Model Code prescribed in Schedule 1 of the Regulations, and to publish the adopted Code on the local governments website. The current consolidated Local Government (Model Code of Conduct) Regulations 2021 (currency start 1 January 2026) set out the Model Code in Schedule 1 and apply across the sector.

Key elements of the Model Code

The Model Code provides for:

- Overarching principles to guide behaviour;
- Behaviours which are managed by local governments under complaints processes; and
- Rules of conduct (minor breaches) which are considered under the statutory process and may be referred for external determination.

Complaints and enforcement pathway

Behavioural complaints are dealt with by the local government in accordance with Division 3 of Schedule 1 (clauses 7–15). The 2026 consolidated Regulations include Regulation 3A, which requires referral of a complaint to the Inspector if a person has on at least two previous occasions (on or after 1 January 2026) been found under the adopted code to have committed a behavioural breach. Schedule 1 clause 14A provides for the appointment of a monitor, and clause 14B clarifies the performance of local government functions under clauses 12 and 13—together providing clearer oversight and escalation for persistent or systemic issues. Alleged rules of conduct breaches continue to follow the statutory minor-breach pathway for external determination.

Purpose and effect

The purpose of the Model Code is to guide decisions, actions and behaviours; clearly reflect community expectations; and ensure consistency across local governments. It provides a standardised approach to managing behavioural complaints and promotes transparent, respectful and accountable governance practices across the sector, as set out in the current, consolidated Regulations.

At its Ordinary Council Meeting held 25 March 2026, Council resolved [39-26] to adopt the following Shire of Dardanup Code of Conduct for Council Members, Committee Members and Candidates.
