1. INTRODUCTION

Section 96(1) of the Freedom of Information Act (1992) requires each government agency, including local governments, to prepare and publish annually an Information Statement.

The Information Statement must set out:-

- The Agency's Mission Statement
- Details of legislation administered.
- Details of the agency structure.
- Details of decision-making functions.
- Opportunities for public participation in the formulation of policy and performance of agency functions
- Documents held by the agency.
- The operation of FOI in the agency.

This document has been prepared for the Shire of Dardanup to satisfy Part 5 of the Act, and is correct as at 2 July 2015. Copies of this document may be obtained from:-

The Chief Executive Officer
Shire of Dardanup
PO Box 7016
EATON WA 6232

Or on the Shire of Dardanup website at www.dardanup.wa.gov.au

Enquiries may be made to that office or by telephoning (08) 9724 0000 Monday to Friday from 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. or by e-mail records@dardanup.wa.gov.au.

2. ENABLING LEGISLATION

The Shire of Dardanup is constituted as a Local Authority under the Local Government Act, 1995. The general function of a Local Government is to provide for the good government of people living and working within its district and includes legislative and executive powers and responsibilities.

Using its legislative powers, a Local Government may make local laws prescribing all matters that are required or permitted to be prescribed by a local law, or are necessary or convenient to be so prescribed for it to perform any of its functions under the Local Government Act.

The Local Government's executive powers involve administering its local laws and doing other things that are necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, performing its functions under the Local Government Act, including the provisions of services and facilities.

Available via Freedom of Information Act

While the Council endeavours to respond to information requests informally, Freedom of Information Legislation may be used to request access to information not available by any other means.

The Council is to administer the Act in a way that:

- Assists the public to obtain access to documents;
- Allows access to documents to be obtained promptly and at the lowest reasonable costs; and
- Assists the public to ensure that personal information contained in documents is accurate, complete, up to date and is not misleading.

While the Act provides for general right of access to documents it also recognises that some documents require protection – these exemptions are listed in Schedule 1 of the Act and include:

- Personal information;
- Information concerning trade secrets;
- Other commercially valuable information; or
- Any other information concerning the business, professional, commercial or financial affairs of a third party who is not the applicant.

Access to the Shire of Dardanup records (Personal or Non Personal), can be made by application to the Freedom of information Co-ordinator stationed at the Council's Administration Centre (Refer Section 11 – Operation of Freedom of Information Processes).

Retention and Disposal of Council Records

All of the Council's records are retained in accordance with the State Records Advisory Council approved Local Government Retention and Disposal Schedule. This schedule stipulates how long a record must be kept and is available for inspection.

10. CODE OF CONDUCT – ELECTED MEMBERS AND STAFF

Section 5.103 of the Local Government Act 1995 provides that every Local Government is to prepare a code of conduct which is to be observed by members of the Council and Staff.

In relation to information Elected Members and employees have a responsibility to ensure that:

- As an Elected Member of the Council there is respect for the decision making processes of the Council which are based on a decision of the majority of the Council.
- Information of a confidential nature ought not to be communicated until it is no longer treated as confidential.
- Information relating to decisions of the Council must only be communicated in an official capacity by a designated officer of the Shire of Dardanup.

- Information concerning adopted policies, procedures and decisions of the Shire of Dardanup is conveyed accurately.

11. OPERATION OF FREEDOM OF INFORMATION PROCESSES

What is the Freedom of Information Act all about?

- It gives you the legally enforceable right to access records held by both State and Local Government agencies. You do not need to demonstrate any connection to or reason for seeking access to these records.
- It gives you the right to apply to have personal information we hold that you believe is inaccurate to be altered. (At no cost).
- It obliges the Shire of Dardanup to make available certain information about the way it operates.

What are considered to be Records?

The Act defines records as:

- Any paper based records, e.g. memos, correspondence, maps, plans, photos, etc.
- Any sound based records, e.g. sound cassettes, Dictaphone tapes.
- Any image based records, e.g. roll films, micrographics, video tapes, optical disks, etc.
- Any digital based records, e.g. computer tapes, USB's, cd's.

What are the costs involved?

The costs may vary from one application to another dependent upon the information required. An initial application fee of $30 (for non personal requests, personal requests are gratis) is payable on lodgement of the approved application form or written application. Charges also apply at the rate of $30 per hour for processing, supervision, transcribing and photocopying time. Photocopying charges of 30 cents apply for each copy. Additional charges may apply in respect of the provision and delivery of information.

The Council may require an advance deposit on charges payable. (Full details of charges are detailed at the end of this section).

Who can I contact to make enquiries?

You may ring the Shire of Dardanup Freedom of Information Co-ordinator on (08) 9724 0306 between the hours of 9.00am to 4.00pm Monday to Friday if you have any queries. Alternatively you can send an e-mail to records@dardanup.wa.gov.au.

How do I lodge an application?

All applications must be lodged in writing, it is suggested that you use the “Application for Access to Documents” form, to assist you in this process:

By Post, addressed to:

FOI Co-ordinator
Shire of Dardanup
PO Box 7016
EATON WA 6232

In person, at:

Shire of Dardanup
Administration Centre
1 Council Drive
EATON WA 6232

See attachment for a copy of an FOI Application for Access to Documents form.

What can I do if I'm denied access to something?

The Freedom of Information Act provides for a review and appeal process. You may seek an Internal Review or if you are still not satisfied a review by the Information Commissioner and still further you can appeal to the Supreme Court.

- The Internal Review – If you are dissatisfied by a decision that we make concerning your application then you can apply for the Council for an internal review of its decision. To apply for an internal review you must put your request in writing and lodge it with the Council within thirty (30) days of being notified of the original decision. There is no charge for an internal review.
- External Review by the Information Commissioner – If you are still dissatisfied after the internal review has been completed, you may seek a review by the Information Commissioner. This request must be made in writing to the Information Commissioner giving details of the decision to which your complaint relates.
- Appeals to the Supreme Court – Any party to a complaint may appeal to the Supreme Court on any question of law arising out of a decision of the Information Commissioner, except for a decision as to the deferral of access to a document, the charges to be imposed for dealing with an access application and the payment of a deposit on account of charges.

Freedom of Information Applications

- Please provide sufficient information to enable the correct document(s) to be identified.
- Proof of your identity may be required, e.g. current drivers' licence.
