You should be aware that:

- The Hearings Panel is NOT a decision making body. Information presented at the hearings will be forwarded to the WAPC for consideration in determining the recommendation for the proposed amendment.
- The WAPC is subject to the Freedom of Information Act 1992 and as such, submissions made to the WAPC may be subject to applications for access under the Act.
- In the course of the WAPC assessing submissions, or making its report on these submissions, copies of your submission or the substance of that submission, may be disclosed to third parties.
- All hearings are recorded and transcribed. The transcripts of all hearings, along with all written submissions, are presented to the Minister for Planning and published as public records should the Minister approve the proposed amendment. The WAPC recommendations are similarly published in a report on submissions.
